Mad Li

[a n]

Hi, this is my first project ever, so please be understanding. English is not my native languages, which means that the translation is a bit awkward and the definitely not perfect by al means, plus the commas are where I felt like putting them. Also, I have little experience GIMPing, so the editing is a little foggy, but that will be fixed in the following releases.

I took up Yonomaka, because last release was ages ago and I like this series a lot. Especially Tsubaki! Don't expect another chapter before Christmas, I actually should have been studying instead of bringing you this one.

I think whoever it was that upped all the remaining RAWs to the internet, all other credits go to me.
